the two countries. Then Dr. Vilayat Guliyev visited NSZL's Collection of Early Printed Books where he had a look at the so-called Corvina copy of Thúróczy Chronicle and the first printed map of Hungary, the so-called Tabula Hungariae. After that, he was provided with general information about the Map Collection. Finally, His Excellency visited the recently opened chamber exhibition of NSZL's Map Collection, which commemorates the 250th anniversary of the birth of János Lipszky [3].
