

Personal history of Hungarians in the United States

2018/09/05

As part of Mikes Program, Nóra Deák made oral history interviews with members of the Hungarian communities living in the East Coast of the United States.

As part of the fourth phase of Mikes Program, Nóra Deák visited the Hungarian communities living in the East Coast of the United States. She published an interesting article in Issue 2018/1 (No. 59) of Vasváry Collection Newsletter [1] about the Program, the work she had performed as a researcher and about the excitement of searching for an interesting era document.
